

Saturday, March 25, 2017

3:00 – 4:00 pm

Professor Po-Shen Loh

- Associate Professor, Carnegie Mellon University
- National Coach, USA International Math Olympiad team

Urban Life Building 220
140 Decatur St SE, Atlanta, GA 30303

Free parking at G Deck, 121 Collins
Street, Atlanta, GA 30303

Po-Shen Loh has been a coach for the USA International Math Olympiad team for over ten years. He was the Deputy Leader 2010-2013 and became the Head Coach in 2013. Under his leadership, the USA team has won the International Math Olympiad in 2015 and 2016.

In this talk he will survey various extra-curricular math enrichments for middle and high schools.

He will also use mathematical puzzles to demonstrate how mathematics can be rather fun and exciting!

Admission is free. Parents are welcome, and students are especially encouraged to attend.

Contact: Professor Yi Zhao
yzhao6@gsu.edu

